

Supporter Registration

We are seeking supporters to cooperate with our activities. We welcome all nationalities such as people interested in international interaction and speakers of languages other than Japanese. We will contact supporters as needed.

Let's work together to make Nabari City a more comfortable place to live for everyone including international residents.

Contents of activities

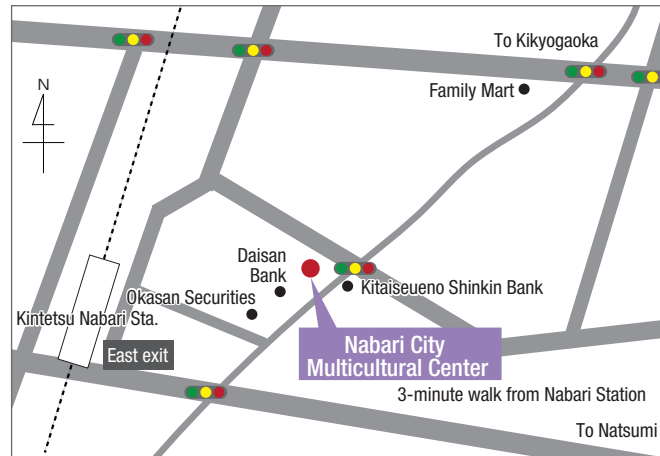

- Event support
- Daily life support for international residents (interpretation, translation, consultation, etc.)

Application

Please apply in person or over the phone. We will mail a registration certificate at a later date.
